

Subject: ICCVAM

Date: Saturday, May 26, 2007 10:45 PM

I urge you to accept internationally approved and validated non-animal testing methods, including non-animal test methods for skin and eye irritation, phototoxicity, and pyrogenicity. Please also follow the December 2006 recommendations made by the animal protection communtiy. Non-animal testing methods are far more efficient and accurate, not to mention humane.

Thank you for your time and consideration,

Amber Vann